Mercer County Central Labor Council Meetings

3rd Thursday of each month

7:30 PM General Meeting

USW 1660 Hall

1028 Roemer Blvd.,
Farrell, PA 16121

7:00 PM E-Board Meeting

Where the delegates of the affiliated local unions meet in an inclusive and welcoming environment. Our Labor Council is a truly a democratic organization, all delegates are encouraged to participate and have an opportunity to run for office.

Our discussions include issues of importance to working families and we strategize and plan events and actions to address those issues.

The “Good and Welfare” section of our agenda gives us the opportunity to share and learn more about each other.

Our meetings end with an optional social time where we build Solidarity!

Join us and help grow the labor movement in Mercer County, PA.

Annual Events:

April 26th - Workers Memorial Service
Mercer County Courthouse, Mercer, PA

Join us at 12:00 noon, as we remember those who lost their lives and renew our fight for safer workplaces for all.

Sept. 2nd Labor Day Parade in Hermitage, PA

Join us at 9:30 AM and take to the streets in SOLIDARITY and show that “Labor is Alive and Well” and a vital part of our communities.

Graduating Senior’s who are members and/or dependents of our affiliated Local Unions have an opportunity to apply for our $1,000.00 scholarship dedicated in the memory of Anna Rickert one of our activists whose passion was education. The deadline for applications is April 30th.
