The Warren-Forest Central Labor Council (CLC) is one of nearly 500 state and local labor councils of the AFL-CIO which are the heart of the labor movement. Our officers and Executive Board are democratically elected. The Delegates and Alternates of our affiliates who serve on our Central Labor Council are dedicated and support the interests of all working people in our area.

We have 30 affiliated local unions in the Warren and Forest Counties of Pennsylvania. We mobilize our members and community partners to advocate for social and economic justice and we strive to make our communities better for all. We also do community service projects suggested by our members.

We are trying to be proactive and will be holding educational classes on topics important to organized labor, which are free and held locally in Warren. Please contact us with suggestions of topics for these classes. We invite all members of organized labor in our region and from other areas to join us. As we schedule classes, they will be posted both on our website (<http://pa.aflcio.org/warrenclc>) and Facebook page (www.facebook.com/Warren-Forest Central Labor Council) for your convenience,

We need your help to grow. We reside in rural America and the 2016 election has proven that our votes count. By educating our members, we can effect change. We ask our affiliates to attend our meetings and help us grow.
